Iowa Convention Opens Sept. 23

Details of the September 24-25 Iowa Numismatic Assn. convention to be held in the Blackhawk hotel, Davenport, Iowa, were announced by Brule Carleson, the general chairman, and Connie Anderson, the assistant general chairman.

There will be four auction sessions beginning with an "early bird" event at 7:30 p. m. on Friday, September 23. The other auction sessions will be Saturday afternoon, Saturday night after the banquet and Sunday afternoon.

The bourse tables of approximately 40 dealers from all parts of the midwest have been sold out for a month.

Hotel reservations are to be made directly to Hotel Blackhawk, Davenport, Iowa.

Brule Carleson is general chairman; Don Kesley, secretary; Treasurer; Connie Anderson, assistant general chairman; Lauren Benson, bourse chairman; Lloyd Vaught, auction chairman; Dick Fry, publicity chairman.

Frenzied Congolese Are Halted At Old 'Monies'

By Hans M. F. Schulman

Numismatic news items I just received from a refugee from the Belgian Congo will prove more than anything else that this territory is not ready to govern itself. A collector, who wants to stay anonymous because of relatives left behind, told me that in the panic which followed the liberation, he left most of his valuable possessions behind.

Among these possessions was his marvellous collection of primitive money which included the well known copper crosses of the Baluba tribe, the very large and the small "H" shaped ones.

Other pieces from his collection included the following:

Axes called kasuyu or "zappozaps" (Lulua tribe): large spearheads called ngbele (Lomamo tribe). This spearhead is over five feet long and can be used as a weapon.

A spearhead has an exchange value of about 35 U. S. cents. In the old days 50 of these spearheads would buy a female slave. He also had shokas which means "axe" and kundjas (other type of axe) of the Kassai province, used among the Basongo Meno tribe.

Many knives used as money have a cruelty all their own. The most horrible one is the "trumbash," a throwing knife of which he had 20 varieties.

This knife was currency among many tribes and called differently in every region of the Congo.

He had also the bulu type which was a knife used only as money. It was too fragile to be used otherwise.

Hoe money of iron was represented in many types and he had the fan-axe money of the deep bush. Bells and the heavy collars used near Leopoldville (Bateke tribe) were included; the copper and brass anklets were so heavy that he could not even take them along even if there had not been a panic.

Some of the collars—and they were worn by women—weigh 30 pounds!

These collars were placed around the neck so tightly that if she was captured by the enemy they cut off her head so as to obtain the collar.

Brass wires, brass ingots, rings, coiled and straight, paste from redwood trees made into blocks, called tukula, and many other Congo items were part of his rich collection.

His relatives who stayed behind advised him that when the Congolese ransacked the house and destroyed almost anything; they stood with awe and respect in front of the collection of money of their forefathers.

Canadian Cites Collecting As Big Gold Rush

Coin collecting has stumbled overnight from the scholarly pursuit of a few to the greatest gold rush of the decade. Harold Don Allen, of Montreal, prominent Canadian numismatist, told members of the Middlesex County (N. J.) Coin Club.

Allen declared the "gold rush" has centered around such common pieces as the Lincoln cent which has unusual variety with limited circulation.

Few will "get rich quick," Allen declared, but many are likely to discover new interests. He added that hundreds of new clubs have been started in the past few years.

Allen is completing a third summer of graduate studies at Rutgers University. He is past president of the Montreal Coin Club and appeared recently as a member of the panel of outstanding numismatists who spoke during the Boston American Numismatic Assn. educational program.

Japanese Catalog Is Released

"Catalog of Modern Japanese, Korean and Manchukuo Coins" is an American analysis and presentation of Oriental coins, written by M/Sgt. John G. Spadone.

Sgt. Spadone used his time during his duty with the U. S. Air Force in Japan to research and assemble first-hand material to provide an inexpensive tool for Oriental coin collecting.

Quality, price and ideas of the book are excellent, but the Japanese printers apparently had difficulty following Sgt. Spadone's manuscript. The minor errors in spacing and lettering fail to detract from the book's content, however.

It is bound in a simulated water-marked silk-like cover adorned with a gold dragon.

Another of its values in addition to its price of $1 is its guide for collecting difficult to read coins with established prices.

The book may be ordered by sending $1 per copy plus 25 cents regular-mail or $1.80 for airmail postage fee. The address is M/Sgt. John Spadone, Coin Press, 231 North 18th street, East Orange, N. J.

Sgt. Spadone recently returned to the United States from the Orient and is now located at Mc-

Record Number Sold; New Process Is Success

The United States Treasury Department has sold out of 1959 Philadelphia-Denver mint sets.

Sale over the counter and through the mail halted August 31. Joseph E. Webb, head of the cash division of the Treasury Department, revealed.

This was the first time mint sets were sold on a year-round basis. In previous years sale was confined to the first four months.

"We sold 185,000 sets this year—more than tripling last year's figure of 50,000 sales," Webb said.

"Next year we'll sell even more," he promised as he cited new packaging equipment that turns out 30 sets of five coins each every minute.

A slow-down order prefaced the cut-off date, Webb said. A limit of 80 sets per customer, a January 1 directive, was altered to 10 sets to each person in July.

In discussing next year's plans for the issuance of mint sets, Webb said orders will again be accepted on November 1, 1960.

"We will endeavor to maintain the same price, $2.40 for a set of 10 coins," the cash division executive said, "but our final price analysis will not be available until closer to that time."

Orders are to be addressed to the Office of the United States Treasury, Cash Division, Washington, 25, D. C.

Webb pointed with pride to the fast service rendered by the cash division in handling sale of mint sets. Although it operates with the minimum of personnel, it dispatches mint sets with great expediency, and has received high compliments from many quarters for its promptness.

There is genuine concern to furnish the finest type of coin to the purchaser, Webb said as he told how staff members wear gloves to "face" the coins in the machines for packaging.

"If we could just find a machine to do this operation," Webb said. It is the only manual operation associated with the issuance of the mint sets. The gloves are worn to eliminate one more possible source of scratches.

The new "stand-up" packaging equipment was used for the first time in the issuance of the 1959 coins. It dispenses the coins in plastic envelopes with a Treasury Department identification disk. The packaging mechanism is similar to that used by the United States Mint for proof sets since 1955.

The cash division of the Treasury Department has also solved the "mint sealed" controversy, according to some collectors.

It does not seal the outside envelopes of the Mint sets.

A second boon to facilitate prompt filling of orders, according to Webb, is a new stuffing device for filling envelopes

Webb anticipated one question before it was advanced! "Any small date cents in the 1960 mint sets?" he chuckled.

"No, we were supplied coins after the small date supply was exhausted."

One East coast observer said that since the sets can no longer be obtained from the government agency, much speculation has already arisen. He said he saw 50 sets change hands at $3.50 per set, and one dealer is offering $3.00.

"It seems like May of this year when the proofs were cut off," he said.

Civil War Centennial To Be Celebrated

The first celebration of the Civil war centennial is to be the theme of the West Valley (Calif.) Coin Club's second annual Coinarama, to be held September 25 at the Encino Community Center, Ventura and Balboa Blvd., Encino.

There will be half a hundred displays of coins from ancient to moderns with special Civil war displays and costumes.

From 10 a. m. to 7 p. m. there will be movies on coins, expert numismatic speakers, hourly auctions and special prizes including $350 in gold.

It is expected last year's attendance figure of 2,000 will be exceeded.

The first Civil war centennial wooden nickel will be sold and the club's newspaper, "The Coin," will be sent to anyone who contacts Mary Ellen Newell, 18004 Duncan, Reseda, Calif.

A.N.A. President Attacks 'Buying Sprees' In Report

"Most serious numismatists are puzzled and appalled by the current wild buying spree of beginning collectors who pay premium prices for 1960 United States coins," Rear Admiral O. H. Dodson, USN (Ret.), president of the points out as he cites his annual report as president of the A.N.A.

"The claim has been made that in the 1960 Philadelphia Mint Lincoln cent, microscopic variations in the date create a new variety of the coin," President Dodson said in his comments on current trends in numismatics.

Dodson said: "In my opinion this claim is sheer humbug!"

The claim has been made by a few that some 1960 Philadelphia Mint cents are a fine investment, Admiral Dodson said. He continued:

"In a telephone conversation with William H. Brett, the director of the Mint he stated that from January 1, 1960, through August, 1960, the Philadelphia Mint has produced 235,915,000 Lincoln cents.

"The average daily output of these coins at the Philadelphia Mint since July 5 is 4,300,00 pieces.

"Any statement that some of these coins constitute a fine investment is, in my opinion, a deception," the A.N.A. head said firmly.

"The concern over this new and unhealthy trend is not confined to collectors—the dealers themselves are disturbed and would welcome a return to sanity in the coin business," President Dodson concluded.

Yes? No? West Coast Man Waits For Coin Sale

Caro Martin, 35, paid for his breakfast check of 52 cents in San Francisco — and now he's convinced he received about $10,000 in change.

Martin, a bank clerk and coin collector, spotted a copper 1943 cent minted in Denver in his change.

He rushed it to Coin Dealer Edward Baker who first offered him $100, $200, and then $10,000. A gasping Martin refused the offers so he could think it over.

The Denver mint and the Bureau of the Mint in Washington expressed doubts that any copper cents were minted in 1943 — cents in that wartime year were steel with zinc coating.

Leland Howard, assistant director of the Bureau of the Mint in Washington, said other alleged wartime copper cents have turned out to be copper plated or with altered dates.

Dealer Baker said he had given the coin acid, weight and magnetic tests and was convinced it was genuine.

Martin, married and the father of three, came to the United States from England in 1955.

Current plans call for Martin and Baker to put the cent up for auction. Other dealers have estimated that if it is genuine it will bring $10,000 to $25,000.

The Red book, R. S. Yeoman's A Guide Book of United States Coins, says:

"Owing to a shortage of copper during the critical war year 1943 the Treasury Department resorted to the use of zinc coated steel for our cents."

"No bronze cents were officially issued in 1943."

"A few specimens struck on bronze planchets by error are known to exist."

"Through a similar error, a few of the 1944 cents were struck on steel planchets."

San Francisco coin dealers estimated 16 or 17 of the copper cents were produced in 1943, according to one news source.

Waco (Tex.) Numismatist K. K. Tidwell said the copper cent found by Caro Martin, San Francisco, is not genuine.

He said this is the fourth time he has known of people who claimed to have a copper cent minted in 1943.

He said last year such a cent was to be offered at auction in California, but was withdrawn from sale at the last minute.

The story of Caro Martin and his find sent William R. Fisher Jr., of suburban Mission, Kans., to his coin box.

Out of it he pulled a 1943 copper cent. And along with it a letter from the Philadelphia Mint saying there was no such thing as a copper cent.

Fisher said he has had the coin about 13 years. He said coin dealers showed no special interest in it at the time he acquired it. He wrote to the Mint, and in reply got a letter which said:

"Please be advised that copper cents were not produced in 1943."

New York coin dealers greet the word of a 1943 copper cent in San Francisco with extreme skepticism.

"Impossible," said one. "Undoubtedly a fake," said another. "Never seen such a thing," said a third.

East coast experts have been bothered by hundreds of collectors claiming to possess similar cents.

Coin World Late?

Some Coin World subscribers may receive their copies of this week's paper late because of a strike-shutdown of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The shutdown will not delay the mails out of Sidney and all papers will be mailed at their regular time but the delay may result in transfers at other points.

We are sorry for the possible inconvenience to our readers. Postal authorities assure us that mail will be diverted to other railroads and to trucks and the airlines in an effort to prevent a delay.

The Romance of MONEY

"I'd like to collect coins but I don't know where to start."

Thus began a letter from a Milwaukee teacher last month. Our stock answer — like that authors give to budding writers — really does not suffice. We advise, "Just start collecting."

Collect dates of Lincoln cents, collect a series of Indian cents or Jefferson nickels or Mercury dimes. Collect older coins — just any odd ones that come your way via banks, friends or old attics.

There were coin collectors in ancient Greece and Rome. There were collectors in China and in Europe. We know this because hoards of coins frequently are dug up. The hoards show the coins were collected "with rhyme and reason."

Many hoards unearthed in Greece have contained series or portrait coins covering centuries. The same is true with collections excavated in Italy and other parts of Europe. A big collection of Roman-English coins was found recently in England when an old Roman road was uncovered during excavation work for a new structure.

After a person collects for awhile, he usually decides to specialize. He may specialize in paper money, commemorative coins or medals. Many avenues are open and plenty of written material exists, although it sometimes takes digging.

Several magazines and newspapers are available to collectors and those joining the American Numismatic Association may borrow books by mail.

One of the finest ways to obtain information is by joining a club. If there is none in your area, start one. A club with five to 10 active members is better than one with 100 half-interested persons. Having helped start numerous clubs, we have picked up a little information about what keeps them going — and what hinders them.

There should be a program every meeting night. One of the members can prepare a paper on cents, paper money or any other specialty. The paper may be read in five minutes or 15 but one requiring 5 to 8 minutes is best.

The person preparing the paper can display some of the coins he wrote about, and other members can display similar coins. Some clubs require that members bring displays to all meetings — a single coin, medal or note will suffice. Once or twice a year time can be devoted to programs during which each member gives a brief talk about some item in his collection.

Swap nights and auctions can be fitted into programs, but should not be overdone, especially if these are handled by dealers. Every phase of the program should be kept in the hands of the members as much as possible, if not entirely. A club with a dealer who is a member should utilize his services in every way, but should not permit outside dealers to "take over" regularly.

France is probably the most decorated country in the world with more than 100 military and resistance medals as well as civilian decorations, all with narrow ribbons or rosettes.

appointed a chairman, and divided the "monies" equally among themselves.

And equally means exactly what it says!

They knew the value of each piece according to present values, and if one got a "tukula," another may have gotten 10 "coiled rings."

It has then been reported that many of these items turned up among the town's tradesmen and that the population accepted these items for value.

My reporter wants to show how much of the population still lives in a stage of low primitive culture when they can still accept these primitive monies.

PAM Auction Includes Choice Alabama Coins

Some of the outstanding collectors in Alabama offered coins from their collection for the first auction of the PAM (Piedmont, Anniston, McClellan) Coin Club, held at the Tyson Glass Co., Anniston.

There were items from the collection of Cecil Watson, Forrest James, of Piedmont; Tom Irish and Robert Comer, Anniston, and W. S. Love, of Oxford. One of the outstanding offerings was a set of uncirculated Roosevelt dimes.

People-To- People Big A.N.A. Task

The American Numismatic Assn. is now serving as the administrative arm of the People-to-People coins committee, Harry L. Lindquist, chairman of the hobbies committee, announces.

The A.N.A. has established a special office in Dunn Loring, Va., to handle responses to its invitations to numismatic groups overseas to join the People-to-People program.

Vernon L. Brown, curator of the Chase Manhattan Bank Money Museum, heads the coins committee. Members are Admiral O. H. Dodson, USN (Ret.), Detroit; Lewis M. Reagan, Wichita, Kans.; Sawyer McMosser, New York, and George S. Vanderwende, Dunn Loring, Va.

Vanderwende will serve as vice chairman of the committee.

More than 25,000 brochures announcing the committee's "club-to-club" international exchange program is a feature of the brochure.

In October the committee will mail 20,000 notices overseas enclosing the brochure and an invitation to overseas numismatic groups to join in the movement.

The invitations will be inserts to philatelic first day covers in the champion of liberty series featuring Baron Mannerheim, Finnish hero, to be issued by the U. S. post office department on October 26, 1960.

One of the earlier projects of the numismatic committee of the People-to-People program was the promotion of wider circulation of the United States peace dollar at home and abroad.

This is to demonstrate American sincerity, interest and devotion to the cause of peace. This is the only coin issued by any country in the 20th century on which the word "peace" is inscribed.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower is the organizer of the "People-to-People" program—he has expressed the conviction that the people of the United States can be of great assistance in promoting international peace by fostering friendship and understanding with the peoples of other countries.

Merchant Keeps His Lucky Coin

Irwin Fried, Bloomington, Ind., has turned down a $1,000 trade for a 1901-S quarter—a piece that came across his sales counter several years ago in a simple business transaction.

Fried, who has been collecting 35 years, owns the Fried's Camera and Card Shop in Bloomington; it has become the headquarters for area coin collectors.

Fried said his quarter is a lucky piece now. There were only 72,000 of them minted.

He takes his quarter, insured with the Haven Coin Collectors' Insurance Co., to all coin conventions.

Bungtowns is a name given to clumsy imitations of the English half pennies circulated in Pennsylvania and other states in the latter part of the 18th century. "Bung" means to "cheat or deceive."

'Old Ironsides' Gets Coins

One of the interesting sidelights of the Boston American Numismatic Assn.'s convention was presentation of a collection of early American coins to the U.S.S. Constitution, located in Boston Harbor, one of the outstanding historic at-

Daytonian Sells Fake $10 Gold Pieces; Held By Police

A Dayton man allegedly involved in the sale of phony California gold pieces is being held in Cincinnati after being identified by a Middleton (Ohio) hotel manager's memory for faces.

Robert L. Hicks, 36, who gave a Dayton address, denied to Cincinnati detectives that he sold cheap jewelers' trinkets as "California gold pieces" at $10 each.

Dayton police want Hicks for possession of narcotics and equipment, fraud and embezzlement. The Middletown hotel manager had seen his photo on a Cincinnati television show.

Detectives found 33 fake gold coins in Hicks' possession plus a coin book in his auto. His son said his father was a "coin dealer."

Hicks also had a Liberty head nickel on which the date had been altered.

A valuable coin collection was missing after burglars broke into Best Cleaners, Macon, Ga., police report. W. H. Jennings, owner of the firm, said 25 Booker T. Washington half dollars and three gold coins were missing.

A $4,000 coin collection was stolen from the home of Frank Easter, Corona, Calif., while the family was away on vacation.

The collection included numerous foreign coins from India, Britain, France and China, two nearly complete series of paper money printed by the Confederacy during the Civil war.

Juveniles are suspected in the coin collection burglary; other valuables including a valuable diamond ring were left behind.

San Antonio police are looking for a burglar who got away with $1,800 in coins—valued at between $5,000 and $6,000, all collector's items.

They were taken from the San Antonio Stamp and Coin Co. Owner Stanley Ruppert said the burglars passed over odd and curious coins.

He urged businessmen to watch for an unusual quantity of Liberty head coins dating from 1892 to 1916. There were some early half cents and large cents dating to 1794.

An airport worker admitted he took $140,000 in United States currency from a Pan American World Airways trans-Pacific flight in San Francisco.

He said he took the money on an impulse and hid it in a ravine.

The money was enroute to the Dao Mang bank of Hong Kong to the Crocker-Anglo National Bank, San Francisco.

A collection of American coins with an estimated sale value of $6,688 was stolen from the apartment of Phyllis N. Lester, Scottsdale, Ariz.

The coins included 160 silver dollars, 60 half dollars, 150 Indian head cents. The silver dollars were dated 1870, 1871, 1869, 1879, 1890, 1891, 1895, 1896.

About $1,000 worth of coins, guns and other items were stolen from the Barton D. Neubauer home near Silver Lake, Kansas, sheriff's deputies report.

A 16-year-old Elkhart (Ind.) boy was picked up as a suspect in a burglary from the home of Warren W. Everley, South Bend, Ind. A $300 coin collection was taken.

Full Program By Findlay Group

A summer picnic and auction are part of the annual program of the Blanchard Valley Coin Club, Findlay, Ohio. It was established in December, 1959. It plans to establish a coin library and arrange activities as there is time to do so.

There are 66 members of this new club. It meets the first Tuesday of each month at 8:00 p.m. at the Ohio Power Company, 120 North Main street, Findlay. Officers are elected in January.

Charles Bowers, Findlay, is president; Lester Brown, Benton Ridge, is vice president; Mary Elum, Findlay, is secretary-treasurer; O. R. Flickinger, Findlay, is a trustee; William T. Phillips, Findlay, is a trustee; and E. N. Boehm, Findlay, is a trustee.

Gold Piece Sells For $90 In Club Auction

Sale of a $3 gold piece for $90 was the feature of the monthly action of the Richmond (Ind.) Coin Club at the West End Building and Loan Assn.

Joe Harper was the auctioneer. For the program Harry Creps spoke concerning altered dates on coins.

Old Ironsides Gets Exhibit

A unique collection of early American coins minted in Boston around 1800 was presented to the commanding officer of the U.S.S. Constitution for permanent display by Admiral O. H. Dodson, president of the American Numismatic Assn., during the Boston convention.

Admiral Dodson made the presentation to Lt. (j.g.) Victor B. Stevens Jr., of Worcester, Mass., aboard Old Ironsides in a special ceremony.

The coins are an example of the first hard currency issued in America and bear an engraving of the Constitution.

Coal money was used by the early Romans and also by Germany during the inflation periods.

'Mint Error' Name

The Collectors of Mint Errors have a problem. The problem is with their name and with the terminology of their trade. The term "mint error" troubles them.

Dick Johnson We have all used the word "freak" many times when talking about an oddly struck coin. But "freak" is not descriptive and covers a multitude of other things. Because of this vagueness, I think "mint error" was adopted to mean any misstruck coin, a die error, or planchet defect.

Shunning accuracy it also meant a misprinted piece of paper money, which of course, the mint does not manufacture.

The term "mint error" also carried the unspoken implication that mint personnel made the errors—not purposefully, of course, but they did happen. When in reality it was not the people who made the errors—it was the machinery!

Therefore the term "error" meant a human error. Imagine the feelings of the superintendent of the mint, or the director of the mint, when they received a letter from an organization that was dedicated to studying their errors!

At the recent annual meeting of this national association, held in conjunction with the A.N.A. convention in Boston, the Collectors of Mint Errors decided to change their name to Collectors of Numismatic Errors. This will take effect Jan. 1, 1961. But this still has not solved their problem.

Let me submit two words and let the Collectors of Mint Errors work it into their name if they wish: "mis-strike", for coins, "misprint" for paper money.

These words, I feel, are accurate, descriptive, and they mean what they say.

Reserve Early

Convention officials asked the Statler Hilton Hotel to set aside 800 rooms for collectors attending the A.N.A. convention in Boston. On July 15, less than six weeks before the convention, only 200 rooms had been reserved. The hotel demanded the release of the remaining 600 rooms, which had to be granted. We don't blame the hotel one bit for their action.

Then two weeks before the opening day started a flood of requests for rooms with the obvious result that many collectors stayed at other hotels and commuted to the Statler Hilton.

Surely, even in these fast tempo times, collectors can determine more than two weeks in advance that they will attend a certain convention. If your plans are uncertain, be on the safe side and make your hotel accommodations anyway. Remember, you can always cancel a room reservation, but you cannot always get one at the last minute.

The blame for the Boston situation must rest entirely with the collectors. Dealers have long since learned the lesson of early reservations—sometimes they learned the hard way. It is unfair to yourself, the hotel, and the convention chairman to arrive late without a confirmed reservation.

The number of people registered at the hotel in advance is used for the planning of both hotel and convention committees. Give them a chance to do a good job for you by cooperating with them.

Take a look at our convention calendar on page 24 and 25. It lists the conventions for the remainder of the year. Choose the ones you will attend, and if you are staying overnight, write the hotel. In virtually every instance we give the full mailing address of the hotel for the purpose of making reservations.

Reserve early. Remember you can always cancel, but you can't always get a room at the last minute.

Letters To The Editor

On behalf of the American Numismatic Association, please accept our sincere thanks for the very fine publicity coverage on our convention in Boston.

O. H. Dodson, President
 American Num. Assn.
 Detroit, Michigan

Congratulations are in order for the fine improvement of the larger type you now use in the Classified Section of your most excellent paper. You may recall in a letter of constructive criticism, in which I also enclosed copies of four of the other coin publications, that I gave mention of this suggested tremendous improvement which you took advantage of.

Edgar J. Smutny
 Flushing, N.Y.

While attending the A.N.A. convention for a few hours I received a sample copy of your "Coin World." When I got the chance to read it, I was really surprised with all its features.

Unlike another newspaper this paper of yours has half articles compared to about one-tenth articles of the other . . . Worth the price of the paper alone is "Trends of Today's Coin Values." It's almost like a "Red Book" revised weekly. . . I wish I had subscribed to it long before this.

Phil Baker
 Worcester, Mass.

After reading a copy of your Coin World that I borrowed from a friend, I wish to subscribe. . . this newspaper appears to be the answer to the requests of many coin collectors for current news in the numismatic field. . . I thank you for this opportunity to subscribe.

Boyd O. Woodmansee
 Richmond, Calif.

For only 16 weeks in publication, Coin World is doing extremely well. Coin Trends is very, very good. Something like this has been needed. I believe it should be in every issue. Also other coins of a more stable nature be done on a monthly basis, silver dollars, Indian cents, Liberty halves, Buffalo nickels, mint sets, commemoratives.

The mint report is the only thing missing in your paper.

Your publication should catch on like "wild fire." It has several advantages—published weekly, 10-day backlog and trends. If the 10-day backlog could be cut down to seven or five days you would have a gold mine.

Good health and long life to you and your newspaper.

Jerome Babenko
 Philadelphia, Pa.

A copy was loaned to me by a coin dealer friend, and I was terrifically impressed—both by the scope of subject matter and by the writing.

I am a newspaperman and know whereof I speak. It is a real pleasure to read a publication of this type that sticks to news style, as opposed to loosely-written, editorializing copy. Keep it up.

R. L. Barber
 Santa Barbara, Calif.

Coin World should be read by all interested in numismatics, regardless of age or extent they pursue the hobby.

Up-to-date news, letters to the editor, complaints and compliments of advertisers are all read with interest.

Charles Johnson
 Frankfort, Ky.

You people sure have one serious supporter in this end of the country—Jim Reynolds. He has been after me to take your publication since the first issue. He said all along that this is the coming numismatic publication.

Aubrey G. Sloan
 Tucson, Ariz.

We put an ad in your paper several weeks ago and had telephone calls from all over the country. We advertised 1960 small date proof sets at $9 each. I had one check paying me $12 for five sets and one check paying me $14 for 10 sets. That's pretty good when I advertised them for $9. There was no explanation in the letters why they were willing to pay more.

I got one smart guy from Cheyenne, Wyo., offering to trade me two rolls of his small date "D" cents for one of my small date proof sets. I had the small date 60-D cents advertised for $30 per roll.

At the time I wrote the ad they were advertised (as you know) for all prices. I have since been selling them in our store for $6. The attitude he took with my ad I'll bet he gives his home town dealers a bad time.

Anyway, I was more than pleased with the outcome of my ad and hope your paper continues to be as big a success as it is now. We have the Coin Trend taped on the inside door of our safe and can readily tell the selling price of uncirculated singles as where before we had to thumb through the Scrapbook.

Marguerite Kirkpatrick
 Topeka, Kansas.

If possible pull out the flash out about Hawaii silver for $30. We are completely sold out and they are driving us crazy. Boy, what a nice paper you have. We like it.

Don Jurgensen
 Santa Barbara, Calif.

Enjoy your Coin World very much and keep up the fine job.

Maybe sometime soon you can explain why so many of the dealers expect people to not open their brown envelopes to look at their proof sets.

I think it's time for people that deal in proof sets to open that sealed brown envelope and make sure they don't buy a cat in the bag.

"Psst! Rare coins at half price!"

They are liable to find only two pieces of corrugated cardboard in that sealed envelope without the coins or even uncirculated pieces instead of the gems.

A. Conti
 Schenectady, N. Y.

Congratulations on a fine newspaper. From all appearances it will be the biggest coin magazine in the United States in a very short period.

Cents Good Coin To Start Says President

Mrs. R. J. Hayes, president of the Neosho Valley Coin Club, Chautauque, Kans., in discussing beginning coin collectors, pointed out many starts with cents because they are common and easily obtained.

Mrs. Hayes, who has been interested in coins since she was a girl, became a serious collector 10 years ago.

She paid tribute to the assistance given by local banks to collectors.

Warsaw Bank Sponsors Big Coin Exhibit

A $50,000 rare coin exhibit was sponsored by the Warsaw (Ind.) Coin Club at the Lake City Bank, Warsaw. Clubs from South Bend, Fort Wayne, Logansport, Ind., and St. Joseph, Mich., cooperated.

One of the exhibit features, a complete set of U.S. coins, won first place in the junior division of the Indiana State Numismatic Assn. show in Fort Wayne earlier in the year for Miss Diane Reed, a South Bend (Ind.) high school student.

The display was arranged under the direction of Jack May. The U. S. paper money collection belonged to Marion Watson, Logansport; the Russian money exhibit to L. J. Lutjje St. Joseph, Mich., with R. E. Daniel, Warsaw, showing Bible coins ranging from 550 B. C. to the close of the New Testament period.

The Parke State Bank, Rockville, Ind., displayed a collection of rare coins, currency and stamps in connection with its open house. It recently underwent a $52,000 renovation.

A representative selection of ancient and modern coins together with odd and curious forms of money assembled by the Chase Manhattan Bank Museum of Monies of the World, New York, was exhibited at the Security State Bank, Kenyon, Minn.

Winchester (Va.) residents had an opportunity to get acquainted with early U. S. coins when the Farmers and Merchants National Bank arranged an exhibit borrowed from the Federal Reserve Bank, Richmond, Va. It is a compact representative collection of U. S. coins of historical significance.

All paper money currently in use in the United States was displayed by the Preston State Bank, Dallas, Texas, recently. The bank is in the process of accumulating its own collection of gold coins.

A collection of silver dollars dating from 1846 and United States gold coins were displayed by the New Britain (Conn.) National Bank on its 100th anniversary.

The collection of 336 coins reflecting historical events of 173 countries during the past five centuries, is owned by the First National Bank of New York.

If the coins, worth about $336, had been placed in a bank to draw compound interest at the time they were minted they would have a value of billions of dollars.

J. Ben Steed, vice president of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, and president of the Centre (Ala.) Chamber of Commerce, was named as a member of the coin

Chicagoan Is Coin, Degree Collector

Robert Walters, Chicago, technical co-ordinator for the U. S. Steel's south works, has earned four degrees — one bachelor's and three master's in his 27 years of life.

Someone accused him of going to school as a hobby. He replied: "I collect coins. That's my hobby."

He has studied at University of North Dakota, and the Illinois Institute of Technology.

collection committee of the Alabama Bankers' Assn.

Steed was reappointed to arrange a series of coin collections throughout the state for public information.

A collection of antique mechanical coin banks, showed during the past year by the Suburban Trust Co., Westfield, N. J., will tour Union county. They will be shown to hospitalized children's wards, public libraries and public schools.

Dayton Club Is Planning Meet

Members of the Dayton, Ohio, Coin Club are turning their attention to details of hosting the Penn-Ohio convention in November and the election of officers for the coming year.

The summer activity, an annual picnic, was held under the direction of Donna Soule.

The September meeting was highlighted by a display night for members. It was held at the Washington Federal Savings and Loan Bldg.

The November meeting will be held Thursday, November 3, the night before the Penn-Ohio convention.

Silver Coins Topic

Robert K. Vance addressed members of the Tulare, Calif., Optimist Club recently on United States coins. He accompanied his talk with his collection of rare silver coins.

Grading Theme For Ozarks Collectors

"Grading of Coins" was the program theme for the Heart of the Ozarks Collectors' Club recently at the West Plains, Mo., R.E.A. building.

C. W. Lounsbury, of St. Louis and Hardy, Ark., was the guest speaker. Mrs. Darotha Reavis and Jimmy Decker were named as members of the program committee. Members voted to start plans for a fall exhibition and exchange.

New Club Underway In Mississippi Town

Possibility of a new coin club in Keesler, Miss., was discussed at a meeting of the Coast Coin Club of the Gulfport-Biloxi Miss., area when it met at the White House Hotel.

The Coast club president, H. B. Hoagland, invited anyone interested in joining the new Keesler club to contact him.

Austin Library Given Books By Coin Club

Fifty dollars worth of coin books were placed in the Austin (Tex.) public library by the Austin Coin Club recently—the club has voted a sum of $125 to be spent for this purpose.

Six copies of the 14th edition of the Red Book will be presented soon.

"Odd and Unusual Coins" by Miss Jeannette Giles was the program topic. Miss Giles divided her topic into oddities of shape, size and material.

"Coin World was of considerable help in research for this talk," said Miss Giles. She was asked to elaborate on odd and unusual coins at a later meeting because of the great interest.

Tom McCrummen presided at the session, held at the Travis county courthouse.

Speaker Wins Award

Major Sheldon S. Carroll, one of the founders of the Canadian Numismatic Assn., was the banquet speaker at the recent convention in Sherbrooke. He also won a first prize in exhibit competition with his display of early Canadian tokens. Vernon Sheldon, Chicago, past A.N.A. president, made the presentations during the banquet.

Okla. Club Plans On Hobby Show

The Coo-yah Coin Club, Pryor, Okla. is planning a hobby show. It has a club collection of United States coins and stamps. There is a club library. Visitors are especially welcomed to meetings.

The club was established July, 1958. There are 53 regular members and 12 junior members. It meets the third Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the First National Bank Community Room, 231 East Graham, Pryor.

New Officers At Bridge City

H. E. Mundt, Mobridge, S. D., is new president of the Bridge City Coin and Stamp Club, which met in late August in the Community Room of the First National Bank in Mobridge.

He succeeds Ralph Block who moved to Parkston, S. D., transferred by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Marion Travis of Mobridge, was elected vice president to fill the unexpired term of Lloyd Lubbert, who was transferred recently by J. C. Penney Co. to Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

A coin auction was held, conducted by R. W. Himrich, Selby, S. D., with about 40 collectors attending. Two hundred lots of coins were sold.

An added attraction was a movie, "The Romance of Stamps." Jeff Lerud and Harry Hettich won the prizes of the afternoon.

State Vice President Elva Frei and Mrs. Frei, Blunt, S. D., were guests.

BROCK'S THIRD OVER-THE-COUNTER MAIL-SALE

Good morning. Anybody still speaking to Brock? Not too much in this ad. Quite a lot has taken place down here the past several weeks. Besides a few thousand letters, I have just purchased the estate of the late Edward W. Heusinger. Mostly stamps, but a large holding of Texas, Confederate and Southern States paper money. As much as I am trying to sell off my stock of stamps and coins — it seems that I continue to buy bigger and better lots. I love them — and I will only part with them if I feel that YOU will give them a good home — and also my wife and kids must eat!

On the following lots — I have listed my RETAIL PRICES — THEN I HAVE LISTED BY LOWEST WALK-OUT-PRICE. Pick out those you can use. I'LL TAKE THE WALK-OUT-PRICE!

Postage and insurance extra on all orders under $10.00. Money with your order. Return any coins that don't make you happy, within three days of receipt, for refund. Returns must be insured.

BROCK'S LETTER TO HIS FRIENDS

I am beginning to get a lot of mail! Nearly a thousand last week . . .

I have several business ventures that absorb all my time. Then I have some thirty odd projects that are my hobbies. Then I have about 200 years of reading, writing and research that I desire to accomplish before I leave this veil of tears. So maybe this little letter will enable me to thank all you nice people who wrote.

Yes, we do have a wonderful hobby! Our growth in numbers recently has been phenomenal. Too bad that some of these newcomers have only joined us for the ride. They just don't know the pleasures that can come from our hobby. All they can see is the glitter of a fast profit. I actually have customers who don't even own a coin album!

You don't profit on things you love, your wife, your children, your home, your church or your hobby. This new breed that has joined us only in name resents our not making them rich overnight. Serious collectors who love their hobby should not stand idly by and let these money-waving investors or dealers wreck our hobby.

Now for what prompted THE ad. I was deeply concerned with the wild investment phase of our hobby. We have had a serious crash in our stamp collecting hobby. Brought on by the same things that is now happening in coins. (In my next letter I will tell you about the stamps).

On a Saturday I had a customer tell me that he was going to buy four rolls of 1960 small date cents for $1,000.00. This money was what he had saved for his son's college education five years hence. The seller of the rolls had told him these small dated cents were rarer than the 1909-S VDB's. And that five years from now he could easily get $5,000.00 to even maybe $10,000.00 for these four rolls of cents!

Of course it is none of my business what one does with his money. But would you stand idle while a man is trying to shoot himself?

I told the man about every sane reason that I knew for not making such a wild hopeless gamble. He was convinced. All he could say was "read the ads", "read the ads". I didn't know what to say. He was about to walk out. His son, who wasn't going to get to go to college, was with him. Nice kid. And here I was going to let him miss out on college because I didn't know the right words to say!

I had tried all the serious reasons. What about something foolish, if I could get him to laugh. So I launched the Large and Small date wooden nickel gag. Promised him all the things the big time seller had promised him. He laughed and said "I guess you're right. I'll save my money."

I went back to my desk worn out. But I had done my good turn for the day. Right then a collector-dealer walks in with eight rolls of 1960-D's with the blobs in one of the circles. Price $500.00 per roll. That's $4,000.00 for $4.00 in current pennies! Man — how crazy can we get? He asked me what I thought of them. I told him. He left. I am sure he has no tender love for Brock!

About three o'clock the next morning I was still worried. I have a very large stake in this hobby, both the love for it and actual investment. This wild craze could throw both down the drain. I got out of bed and went to my typewriter and wrote that ad on wooden nickels. It was from the heart. I hope it did some good.

Your friend

If I was younger I would try to have a Mail-order-Haven for collectors. But you can still order any of your coin and stamp supplies from us. All Whitman catalogues and albums in stock, also Friedberg's catalogues and his Library of Coin albums. Whitman's 18th edit of the Blue Book is yours for $1.00. The new 1961 Guide (Red) Book is ready at $1.75. 14th edition. I have a few of the 13th available at $1.25. And the 12th at $1.00 Remember all postpaid.

Everything always mailed with Commemorative stamps.

Texan Hits At Big Roll Craze

"We must continue to make a study of the coins that we collect, and be students of them and not be content to lend our interest solely to the 'roll craze' " said Dr. T. H. Bulter, Temple, Texas, as he spoke to members of the Waco Service Center.

Dr. Bulter spoke on the subject, "An Unusual Look at United States Coins."

A special auction was conducted for the benefit of a member who has been hospitalized for the past several months; $40 was raised in his behalf, according to Kalvart K. Tidwell, vice president and publicity chairman.

A proof set was the evening's prize; an informal trading session closed the meeting.

Gets Coin Club Honor

Gilbert Eaton, Boys' Club manager and former president of the East Bay (Calif.) Coin Club, received an award of recognition recently for years of work for the coin club from Robert McArthur, member of the board of governors of the American Numismatic Assn.

AUCTION AWARD

Excitement prevails in the Payne menage. We have been awarded the auction for the Indiana State Numismatic Association Convention to be held in Evansville, Indiana, on the 19th, 20th and 21st of May, 1961.

The sponsoring Evansville Coin Club promises a convention second only the Nationals, if any. The location, so near to half the collectors in the nation, is in itself conducive to large attendance and the Pan American Theme with twenty Pan American Nations participating in the display, will draw thousands to the convention. Consignments are solicited!

OUR POLICY

You pay in advance, we pay postage and insurance. Californians send B. of E. No. or pay. tax. Orders under $3.00 require 35c postage.

Trends Of Today's Coin Values

Trend Of Fall Market Is Not Yet Indicated

By Jim Kelly

333 W. First St., Dayton 2, Ohio

After a hectic week in Boston, and another in New York City, it is good to be home and to prepare "Trends" from the comparative quietness of our own office. It also gives us a chance to think over the frantic activities of the dealers during the A.N.A. Convention. We hardly found time to eat or sleep and most of the other dealers were just as busy. However, this all goes with a national convention where you try to do a month's work in four or five days. Most of the dealers reported that business in general was very good.

Jim Kelly

The one item in which this column is particularly interested—rolls and investment material—took a quite interesting trend. Dealers were showing very little interest in buying large quantities of any items except at a very low price.

On the other hand, none was interested in selling these same items at bargain prices. We got the impression that many of the dealers, as well as investors, were marking time, waiting to see which turn the fall market would take. Frankly, we cannot blame them as there has been a decline in demand as well as price for many of the rolls during the past two months.

At the present time it is impossible to determine whether this is due to the normal slow-down in summer business or an indication of the fall trend. We will be watching this market very closely during the next few weeks and will report any development which we feel will be of interest or benefit to our readers.

Riders' Pony Express Medal

Riders Get Special Medal

All orders for the official pony express medal should be on a current basis by September 30, Clarence A. Reeder Jr., secretary-treasurer of the National Pony Express Centennial Assn, Salt Lake City, Utah, advised Coin World.

Delay in filling medal orders has been due to the backlog of the tremendous number of orders received, Reeder said.

"We appreciate everyone's patience in this matter," the secretary said.

One special medal, two and one-fourth inches in diameter, in heavy relief, and weighing just under four ounces, was manufactured by the U. S. Mint for the centennial organization after authorization by a special act of congress.

They were made especially for presentation to the just under a thousand riders who participated in the July, 1960, reenactment of the Pony Express.

None of these medals were sold; 30 were withheld for deposit in appropriate libraries, historical societies, museums, etc., in the eight Pony Express states and Washington, D. C.

When plans were made a year ago, promises were made to the horsemen and many riding organizations whereby the participating riders would not only be presented a Bible as they were a hundred years ago, but would also be given a beautiful and distinctive medal.

Since the riders were all volunteers, it was felt that they should have the finest possible medal, Waddell F. Smith, president, asserted.

New Club Starts In Georgia Area

A new coin club—the Button Gwinnett—has been organized in the Lawrenceville-Buford-Dacula, Ga., area. It is open to collectors 14 years of age and over who have a real interest in the collecting of coins, medals and paper money.

Mrs. Larry Gunter, Lawrenceville, is one of the organizers of the club along with Gartrell Nash, Van Britt, Lawrenceville; Herman Youngblood Buford; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen, Dacula, and James Price, Dacula.

After each business meeting there will be trading and auctioning of coins, medals and paper money, Mrs. Gunter pointed out.

Northern Va. To Show Coins For September Fair

The Northern Virginia Numismatic Society, Front Royal, Virginia, will hold an exhibit at the local fair in September. One member will be in attendance at the display at all times, to answer questions, as the club did during National Coin Week.

The club was established May 12, 1959. It has 40 regular members and 15 junior members. It meets the second Tuesday of each month at 8:00 p.m., at the Royal Motor Hotel, Front Royal.

Officers are elected in April. Mrs. Anne Rife, Middletown, Va., is president; Walter Cooley, Staasburg, Va., is vice president; Charles Biggs, Front Royal, is secretary; and Douglas Good, Front Royal, is treasurer.

The Board of Directors is composed of Anne Rife, Middletown, Douglas Good, Middletown, W. E. McCauley, Front Royal, and T. A. Slaughter, Front Royal.

Mrs. Whitby Is Winner

Mrs. Joan Whitby, Scarborough, Ontario, F.R.N.S., was awarded first prize in the ancient and medieval coin classification at the recent Canadian Numismatic Assn., convention in Sherbrooke. Here she receives her award from Vernon Sheldon, Chicago, past president of the American Numismatic Assn.

Vending Coins Rich Source In Scarce Items

Edward Werner, Appleton, Wis., coin collector who spoke recently to the Lions' Club of that city, has a fine source for collection material and his specialty in American and Canadian coins.

Most of his coins he has found the past 11 years. Only one coin—dated 1865—keeps his cent set from being complete.

Other numismatists ask him how he has gained so many coins in such a short time.

His answer? A district collection officer for thousands of vending machines lets him screen all the coins he takes in.

There are over 7,000 a day or two and a half million a year. Werner can scan 2,000 coins an hour.

If Werner does not need a coin for his collection, he ships it to a wholesaler of rare coins elsewhere in the United States.

He is active in the Appleton, Wis., Coin Club and constantly urges and aids teenagers to take up the hobby. He is also convinced of the hobby as an aid to sustaining the health of older people.

Bridge money is the name given to a variety of Chinese metallic currency with a bridgelike appearance. Its Chinese name is Kiao Pi.

"DISPLAY PACKAGING SPECIALISTS FOR COIN COLLECTORS"

Fred C. Smith Writes Winning Bulletin Article

"Coin Collector Or Numismatist" is the title of the first prize winner in the recent Canadian Bulletin article contest, written by Fred C. Smith, of Sherbrooke, Quebec.

Winner Smith was presented with a prize of $25 in coins from Marles & Co., Calgary, Alberta, sponsors of the competition.

Text of Numismatist Smith's prize-winning article is printed herewith through special permission from the Calgary firm.

COIN COLLECTOR
OR NUMISMATIST

By Fred C. Smith

I wonder which you are? The dictionary defines numismatics as the science or study of money. If you are reading this publication I do not doubt that you are a coin collector — but a numismatist? Not necessarily.

He (the numismatist) is the chap who studies the various monies, and not just vainly hoards them. There is just no pleasure in keeping coins — the real pleasure and satisfaction comes when you start to learn about, and from them.

What can be more thrilling than to track down an old token, and learn what it was used for, why and by whom?

A true numismatist should be able to tell a little history behind each piece in his cabinet. Maybe, where or why it was issued. (Possibly a seige piece, or local emergency token, etc.) Even a human interest story adds greatly to the interest. As time passes, if no one studies, and records them, these

Youngstown Club Has Picnic

A family picnic and a meeting including an auction and bourse were July activities of the Youngstown (Ohio) Numismatic Club.

The picnic was held at Stitts Pavilion, Mill Creek Park. An informal afternoon and evening with a ball game, horse shoes, movies and good food were enjoyed.

The July meeting was held at Krakusy Hall with the bourse preceding the business meeting.

little known human interest incidents will be lost to future generations.

Take for example — a display of odd and curious monies. Looks interesting and attractive, doesn't it! But, if you do not read the little labels relating the story of each piece you are lost as to knowing what is what. In your collection of the other types of coinage — do you know that the famous Leslie two pence of Toronto, while too large for convenience it was often holed and used as a washer.

Remember, too, the big uproar and controversy about the 1958 Canadian totem pole dollar. It supposedly bore an image of a "death totem pole".

Rumor had it that people would refuse to use them, and would be withdrawn; others foretold it would be very scarce and hoarding them would bring certain wealth (pure bunk). Of course, we know the answers now—but this will all be forgotten in a few years.

There are many unlisted Canadian tokens — a most rewarding field for study. How many new ones can you track down from your district? Maybe, if you got out to work you will be more than pleasantly surprised. Not just the tokens—but the fact that you found them yourself, and maybe purchased them from the issuing company. This will make them of more personal value to you.

My main theme is that to enjoy your hobby, you should search all possibilities for enjoyment. In doing so, as I suggest you cannot help but to gain knowledge about your coins, and therefore no doubt create renewed interest. One very important way to do this is to get up and speak before your local club.

You do not have to be an eloquent speaker — in preparing your talk, by reading, doing research, and checking over your coins for the display to accompany your talk you are sure, and I will go as far as to guarantee it — you will discover more pleasure than you know before from your hobby.

If you just don't want to speak—why not write an article for the club bulletin: If they do not have one, it is time one was started. It takes little effort to produce one. Just one evening a month to write it. Make it newsy, homey, and above all educational and informative. Make your theme to promote the study of the more challenging and little known fields of numismatics. Make a challenge to the members.

Let's reap unimaginable dividends from our coins through their study — let this be your motto!

Ohio Juniors Are Given Full Support

"We constantly encourage junior membership—there lies the future of coin collecting," said George Banchy, Portsmouth, Ohio, president of the Ohio Valley Coin Club, as he discussed fall and winter plans of the organization, along with Garnet M. Hollar, the secretary.

Officials are planning an auction with material donated by members; proceeds will go toward a $500 pledge made by the club on the new YMCA.

A guest speaker will highlight the September meeting with the annual banquet set for November. At this time a new vice president will be named to fill a vacancy caused by a resignation.

Assembling of a reference library for the benefit of the members, work on a permanent display location to promote numismatic interest are current club projects.

Cost of the Ohio Valley club's bulletin is reduced through advertisements each month which aids in payment of printing and mailing expense.

The officers point with pride to the total membership of 216 regular members with 55 juniors. There are two life members.

Meeting the third Tuesday of the month at 7:30 p.m., the Ohio Valley club holds session 12 months of the year at the Rainbow room of the Horn-ett, 2323 Gallia St., Portsmouth.

There are three special prizes at each meeting. Guests register separately and are mailed a club bulletin for three months after their visit.

There is an officers' meeting the first Monday of the month, and semi-annual banquets in May and November.

Serving with President Banchy and Secretary Hollar are J. E. Hunt, treasurer with Dan Brushart, Herbert Spence and J. E. Hunt as members of the board of directors. All reside in Portsmouth.

Included in the club facilities are their own mimeograph, nine club-owned display cases and 22 members with cases, all made to specifications as required by the Penn-Ohio organization.

The United States Mint sold 20 proof sets in gold and 811 in silver for the year ending June 30, 1959.

Collecting Is Exciting

Good public relations and promotion of coin collecting as a hobby were combined by the Kenosha Coin Club, Kenosha, Wis., when they likened the search for coins and currency to a hunt for precious metals and buried treasure.

They added quickly this treasure did not include golden doubloons and pieces of eight as a pirate trove, but coinage and currency of the world.

No treasure maps, long voyages and digging are necessary. John Gehring, president of the club pointed out, but there is adventure in filling out a collection, in trying to outbid for coins.

Gehring pointed to the 60-member Kenosha club with its sociable and enlightening meetings held the first Thursday of every month in Maxwell's club rooms.

Expedition Finds Ancient Coins On Site Of Old Jerusalem City

An unusual find of 35 silver coins dating to about 300 B. C. has been reported by Rev. Jack R. Irwin, former pastor of the Bethlehem (N. J.) Union Church. He was working with the Drew-McCormick Archaeological expedition in Jordan.

The coins date back to the reign of the Ptolemaic kings, the minister said. He explained none of the 25 members of the group ever heard of a similar number of silver coins being unearthed, except at the site of the Dead Sea Scrolls.

The expedition spent almost two months at Shechem, an ancient city about 40 miles north of Jerusalem. Camp was broken in mid-August.

The expedition was led by Dr. G. Ernest Wright, Harvard University, and Dr. Larry E. Toombs, Drew University, Madison.

In addition to the coins, the expedition uncovered pottery, an official seal inscribed with Hebrew characters and other remnants of ancient civilizations, Rev. Mr. Irwin reported.

He said the expedition opened three holes in the mound which marks the site of the city. He explained two were continuations of previous expeditions launched by Drew University and McCormick Theological Seminary of Chicago.

While the expedition was in the field, the work day began at 4:30 a.m. and lasted until 1:30 p.m. when the heat made it impossible to work, Rev. Irwin explained.

He said the remaining hours of the day were spent recording items uncovered, and in rest.

The expedition employed 100 native workmen as diggers under the supervision of expedition members.

He explained one discovery strengthened a previous conclusion that the city once was completely destroyed. Mud bricks, fallen stones and a layer of fine black earth, were positive indications of the destruction, he said.

Upon his return to Clark, N. J., Rev. Irwin will begin work on his dissertation for a doctorate degree from Drew University, Madison, N. J.

James R. Bartlett

Coin Crook Is Sought By Feds In Mail Fraud

Post office officials are on the trail of James R. Bartlett, 28, indicted at Pensacola, Fla., for fraudulent use of the mails in failing to furnish rare coins which he advertised for sale and for which he was paid.

Bartlett's likeness is peering down — front and side view — from post offices all over the country with the plea to notify the postal inspector at Atlanta, Ga., immediately.

Described as white, born November 21, 1932, at Owensboro, Ky., six feet, one inch, 210 pounds, blue eyes, light brown hair, scar on back of right hand, Bartlett was doing business as the Bay Coin and Stamp Co. when he was indicted at Pensacola last May.

Elections Meet Set

September 22 is the date of the next meeting for the Arrowhead Coin Club, the session to be held at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall club rooms, Virginia, Minn.

This is the annual election session of the organization.

Coin-Stamp Exhibit At Scottsbluff Next Month

A combined numismatic-philatelic exhibition has been set for October 8-9 at the Scottsbluff, Nebr., Armory. Vernon L. Johnson and Elmer Owens, presidents of the Monument Stamp Club and the Oregon Trail Coin Club, announce.

Committee members working on the joint project are Dale Henderson, Jack Fuller, Gary Hilliard and C. O. Walters of the Coin Club, and A. L. Hadwiger, Ed Williamson and John Henneberger of the stamp club.

Non-members may exhibit at the two-day show, officials said.

Members from three area coin clubs viewed a film loaned by the Denver Mint at the recent meeting of the Scottsbluff organization.

Members of the Kimball Coin

Club and the Panhandle Coin Club of Chadron joined the Scottsbluff members.

The film, "A Trip Through the Mint," showed steps in minting from the pouring of molten metal, rolling and cutting of strips to the stamping of coins.

The Denver Mint is capable of more production than the Philadelphia Mint, and can produce eight million cents each day, it was learned.

Another important operation of the mint which is not ordinarily seen on tours is the gold assaying department, the film disclosed. Although the U.S. is off the gold standard, the Mint receives and stores gold to back the nation's economy, it was pointed out. The film showed how this must be carefully assayed to determine its purity and value.

Allen Scoggin projected a film.

Earl Harris reported finding a 1914-D cent. Certificates of participation were distributed to members who were active in National Coin Week activities.

Halifax To Have 1961 Coin Medal

The Halifax Coin Club, Halifax, Nova Scotia, will sponsor a commemorative centenary medal in honor of decimal coinage in Nova Scotia, 1861-1961.

The medal is being engraved and struck in the design approved by the Royal Mint advisory committee under the presidency of H. R.H. the Duke of Edinburgh.

These medals will be presented to select government and civil authorities and others will be sold to numismatists across the United States and Canada.

The Halifax club meets the second Wednesday in the YMCA. An auction followed by a business session and a speaker or movies on some numismatic subject are features.

It was organized December 10, 1958 with A. M. MacDonald as the charter president. First secretary-treasurer was Miss Edith Davidson. Later she was succeeded by Mrs. Lorraine Canto, formerly secretary of the Victoria Numismatic society.

The membership has now exceeded the 80 mark. The organization is a member of the C.N.A. and expects to be awarded the 1964 convention.

Last year the club received into membership Major Sheldon S. Carroll, founding president of the C. N.A.

The Rev. Edward Morris edits a monthly newsletter for the organization.

Nelson Boltz is president; C. F. Wetmore, vice president; recording secretary, Mrs. Canto; corresponding secretary, Reg Legare; treasurer, Albert Parsons.

Own Library Is Club Feature Too

The Columbus Numismatic Society, of Columbus, Ohio, has its own club library and club coin collection. It has 80 regular members and 30 junior members. It meets the second Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the Neil House hotel.

A monthly bulletin is published by the club. Charles Hoff, Columbus, is president; Dr. Alois Dvorak, Columbus, is vice president; John Hoster, Columbus, is treasurer; George Andrews, Columbus, is historian; Roy E. Smith, Columbus, is librarian and curator; and Gene Wilson, Columbus, is secretary.

A series of tokens of copper and brass issued about 1820 in Canada were believed to have been made by a Montreal blacksmith, hence their name, Canadian blacksmith coppers.

Detroit Show Is Set For November

Plans are progressing for the fifth annual fall convention of the Michigan State Numismatic Society to be held in Detroit November 18, 19 and 20.

The committee is working diligently to present a well-organized convention, Paul F. Schilling, chairman, said.

Ben Stocker is in charge of bourse; Henry R. Burns, exhibits; George L. Hatie, publicity; Edward J. Stenners, banquet and entertainment; Dan Parker, security and protection; Nedra Gonzales, registration; Helen Bernauer, ladies' activities; Albert J. Polder, hotel arrangements; Paul Landry, badges and awards.

Exhibits will include the following classifications:

United States coins, United States paper money, ancient coins prior to 1500 A. D., foreign coins, 1500 A. D. and after, foreign paper money, miscellaneous, odd and curious, mint errors and gold coins.

Exhibits comprising predominantly gold coins will be placed in the gold category, Schilling advised. Exhibitors are not limited to the use of A.N.A. cases, he said.

A first place trophy and second and third place ribbons will be awarded in each category. A large best-in-the-show trophy will be given to one of the first place winners.

Each of the exhibitors will receive a special registration badge.

Exhibit rules and applications should be obtained promptly from Exhibits Chairman Henry R. Burns, 15486 Auburn, Detroit, 23, Mich.

Information regarding the remaining bourse space can be obtained from Ben Stocker, 19953 Prest Ave., Detroit, 35, Mich.

General inquiries should be directed to Paul F. Schilling, 17304 Lahser Rd., Detroit, 19, Mich.

Decor. Reflects Coin Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Manno's interest in old coins and antique glass dictated the decor of their new home in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.—they chose a colonial exterior and an atmosphere of French provincial, burnished brass and soft colors.

Their home was recently featured in a page-size story with pictures in the Fort Lauderdale News.

Like true numismatists, the Mannos said they tried to achieve a "feeling" instead of emphasis on the "material."

Take-Off On Educational Program Is A.N.A. Satire

One of the serious educational features of the American Numismatic Assn.'s annual convention is an entire evening devoted to the "educational program."

This year it included such experts as David F. Spink, London, England; Professor Thomas Lisimore, Havana, Cuba; Harold Don Allen, Montreal, and Miss Margaret Thompson, of the American Numismatic Society, New York.

Glenn B. Smedley, assistant to the editor of The Numismatist, Oak Park, Ill., was moderator.

A gay take-off in the form of pure satirical humor aimed at the 1960 small date craze was one of the banquet program features.

This is the banquet's "educational" program delivered by President Dodson:

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM:
The National Association of Current Coin Collectors
Gullible Plaza Hotel
Cheeseborough, Utopia

The moderator will introduce each speaker. Each member of the panel is allocated one hour.

"The Origin and Evolution of the Philadelphia Mint Small Date 1960 Cent with Tapered One, Blunt End Nine and Slightly Spread Microscopically Smaller Six." By I. Willnot Bewilder.

"The Investment Value of the 235,000,000 Philadelphia Mint Cents Produced Through August 23." By I. B. Trustful.

"The Artistic Merit of the Small Wide Date 1960 Lincoln Cent Versus the Wide Small Date." By H. Allan Lostsight.

"The Probability and Chance of Finding a 1909-S VDB Cent in Good Condition in a Bank Cent Bag." By A. Thriftless Wild.

"The Cabin That Lincoln Built—Stunning Architectural Designs Achieved from Construction Blocks of Unexamined Bank Rolls of Uncirculated Lincoln Centers." by R. V. Barren.

Medallions On Display

A display of coronation medallions by John Sheppard, of Downsview, Ontario, highlighted the last meeting of the Victoria-Simcoe Numismatic Assn., of Woodville, Ontario.

The extensive collection covered all the monarchs from William the Conqueror in 1067 to Elizabeth II in 1953.

Included in the display were a bronze and a silver medallion of Kind Edward the eighth who abdicated his throne and was never crowned.

Omaha Club Sets Business Session

A business session for the Omaha (Nebr.) Coin Club has been scheduled for September 11 at the home of Mel Stark, 4124 N. 62nd St.

At the August 26 session of the club, held at the Hotel Fontenelle, William E. Vesicio led a discussion concerning various experiences of members in their quest for coins.

Rolls, Sets, Small Dates Are Big Show Sellers

More details have come from Amarillo, Texas, about the Amarillo Coin and Gun Show, held August 27 and 28 at the Herring Hotel there under the sponsorship of Keith Clark, Jake Huber and Dewey Hicks, prominent coin and gun collectors.

A brisk business by the more than 40-coin dealers present in the two-day bourse was reported with activity especially great in the brilliant uncirculated rolls and sets. The small date 1960 cents played a prominent part in the business.

Members of the Amarillo Coin Club combined their outstanding collection pieces to form an exhibit.

A few losses were reported during the two-day session—among them were two brilliant uncirculated 1909-S VDB cents and a brilliant uncirculated 1932-D quarter.

In colonial New England, nails were so scarce that they were accepted as money.

Detroit Wife Is Guest On West TV Show

Mrs. John Kary and son, Billy, have a date back in Michigan in time for the East Detroit coin bourse and show September 25, according to their husband and father, John Kary, 28020 Pinehurst, Roseville, Mich.

They had no plans to leave their Roseville, Mich., home a month ago until the giant and magic hand of television whisked them off to the west coast.

Mrs. Kary and Billy were flown by TWA jet airliner from Michigan to Hollywood August 17 to appear on the television show, "It Could Be You."

Her sister, Mrs. Anne Cardon, was a member of the panel of three people trying to guess who was behind the curtain. She took the clue when Mrs. Kary said:

"Do you remember climbing the pear tree in the old orchard?" Mrs. Cardon threw up her hands and ran toward the curtain to meet Mrs. Kary and little Billy. The taped show was shown August 26.

Since their appearance, the family from all over the United States has been contacting John Kary who occupied his time at home with activities of the East Detroit Coin Club.

An offer of $5,000 was made for the first coined Lafayette silver dollar. It was refused and the first coined was given to the president of France.

On-The-Spot Research At A.N.A. Meet

How far will speculation in rolls and current proof sets go?

Michael J. Baron, Winthrop, Mass., one of the live-wire younger numismatists at the Boston A.N.A. convention, did some research of his own and came up with this answer:

"As long as people still want to buy the rolls and proof sets, the prices should stay up and keep climbing.

"The trouble will come when people want to sell. This will be the turning point," Baron declared after he had talked to many dealers and collectors at the convention.

"I believe I've assembled a fair over-all picture of the situation," he said, although he pointed out that since there are many points of view, a simple answer of yes, or no, will not provide the answer as to whether or not speculating in rolls and current proof sets is good or bad.

Baron said everyone agreed upon one point—the speculator is not a true numismatist in the sense that he buys rolls and proof sets with the hope of realizing a profit rather than to collect, display and learn something from his coins.

"Of course," he pointed out, "it cannot be forgotten that even the hobbyist is found dabbling in speculation.

"Is speculation hurting the hobbyist?" queried Baron.

The answer returned: "No, the speculator is interested almost exclusively in rolls and current proof sets and has little interest in the material sought by the hobbyist."

The only black spudge in the picture, observed Baron, is that some of the dealers and collectors he talked with felt that the public was getting the wrong slant on coin collecting—that it is more of a get-rich-quick scheme than an interesting science and hobby.

One dealer mentioned that kids came into his shop looking for rolls, not Indian head cents like they used to.

"Is it doing any good?" asked Baron.

"These rolls will in the future supply the uncirculated coins the hobbyist will want for his collection," was the answer, generally speaking, provided by the speculators and dealers who sell a large volume of rolls.

Slides Shown As Program By Treasury Dept.

Coin and currency slides from the U. S. Treasury Department formed a program for the Susquehanna Valley Coin Club, Sunbury, Pa. A dinner meeting will be held in September, on the fourth Tuesday, on the fourth Tuesday. Paid-up members are guests of the club.

There is a small club library at the home of the secretary. There are 74 regular members and two junior members. No meetings are held in July, August, September and December. Otherwise, it meets the fourth Tuesday of each month at 8:00 p.m. at the Y.M.C.A. Auditorium, North Fourth street, Sunbury.

Officers are elected each January. Joseph L. Moran, Gordon, Pa. is president; R. M. Dunkelberger, Sunbury, is vice president; and Mrs. Russel H. Search, Sunbury, is secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Search has held this office since the club was organized. Mr. and Mrs. Search were instrumental in getting the club started.

Fall Conclave Planned In North

A two-day coin convention—the fourth annual—will be held October 29-30 in Janesville, Wis., under the auspices of the Beloit and Janesville Coin Clubs.

Convention site will be the Parker Pen Co. Arrow Park.

The two-day convention was planned because of increased interest in numismatics, Martin Kades, general chairman said.

On Saturday the convention will open at 1:30 p.m., and at 10 a.m. on Sunday. It will close at 11 p.m. both days. Bourse fee of $15 includes dinner and use of display case.

A large auction will be held with some of the offerings to include a 1877 Indian head cent, 1909-S VDB, 1916-D dime, gold pieces, proof sets, rolls, currency and other desirable lots.

Exhibitors will be awarded prizes in coins.

Robert Branigan, Beloit, Wis., is bourse chairman; Louis Flint, Janesville, chairman of building arrangements; Herbert Deman-ouske, Beloit, publicity chairman; Leonard Lockwood, Beloit, and Douglas Beyers, Janesville, ticket chairmen.

All inquiries relating to the auction and exhibits should be directed to Chairman Kades, 855 N. Sherwood Ave., Beloit.

Akron Club Plans Fall Open House

The Akron (Ohio) Coin Club will hold open house on Sunday, October 30, in the ball room of the Portage Hotel at Akron. There will be no admission charge.

Exhibits of numismatic items will be on view. The bourse will be in charge of C. D. Clark, 51 Canton Rd., Akron.

Charles Frazier is president of the host club. Dr. Jack Litman and Alex Simons are in charge of arrangements. Louis Friedland heads publicity.

Iowa Club Names Membership Committee

A new membership committee was named for the Muscatine Coin Club of Muscatine, Iowa, by its president, J. Harvey Burham: Ernie Schaer, Seldon Crow, Dave Phelps and Tom Lazio.

At a recent session held at the Light office Mrs. Kenneth Hathaway was presented with the special award.

Alexander the Great placed the head of Heracles on a silver coin to pay his troops.

Vermont Collector Sad

Clayton Brunelle, Burlington, Vt., says he almost wishes he never started collecting coins in 1934.

He says that since the 1960 small date craze has started he gets from 20 to 30 telephone calls a day from people wishing to strike it rich!

First 'The Numismatist' Editor Succumbs In 1908

Editor's Note. This is the final story in a three-part series written by Donald R. Heath, Grosse Point, Mich., about his father, D. R. Heath, first American Numismatic Assn. president, and his experiences in printing the first issues of The Numismatist.

By Donald R. Heath

In 1902 the Record Publishing Co., of Monroe, Mich., made an attractive offer on printing, and from that date until August, 1908, they continued to print The Numismatist.

A. B. Bragdon, the business manager of the firm, was an old friend of my father and was an invaluable aid to him, in addition to having the advantage of the printing being done but a few doors away from his office.

The matter of correcting proofs was no longer one of delay as formerly. Then, too, Mr. Bragdon could read my father's peculiar handwriting . . . a very essential cause of some proof reading being necessary.

About this time a Blickensderfer typewriter was added to the editorial office and I know that all records for one-finger operation were broken as my father never used more than that. Nevertheless, it served well, as all manuscripts were from that time on, typewritten, although notes and corrections were added by hand occasionally.

One little thing that might be interesting to tell here was that in the prin shop here was a case of Greek type which my father had to buy, and whenever there was a word or words in the printed matter it always was necessary for him to go over and put it in type himself.

As to the cuts and photos that were used, for the most part the photos were the work of Dr. Will Turner, a Monroe boy, who, while recuperating from a bad injury in the Spanish-American war, had a darkroom over my father's office.

He was an expert photographer and did quite a bit of work which was printed in the issues around 1898 to 1902. Many of the line drawings were made by Roland H. Spaulding, also a home town boy. He copied these from sketches, rubbings or originals. All of these were made into zinc etchings on one large block, then sawed and labeled for the printer. . .

It had been with a great deal of pleasure and pride that I have looked over some of the earlier volumes of The Numismatist, my first opportunity to see a complete set being those in the library of the American Numismatic Society, New York City, and later those of L. R. Noyes, of Detroit, who has the set complete lacking a very few of the early numbers.

My father never had a complete set of his own . . . in my handling of these older issues I imagined that I could experience the same feeling that must have been my father's many times, and which he expressed in type at least twice — a threat to quit due to an apparent lack of support . . .

It is the credit of the loyal help of a few that he received around 1891 that made it possible for the magazine to survive. The most outstanding man in this connection is the late Joseph Hooper, Port Hope, Ontario.

He helped out the early days of The Numismatist by sending in an almost steady flow of manuscripts. Others that I recall very well are Charles T. Tatman, W. G. Jerrems Jr., Edward Frosard, George Rice and A. G. Heaton. . . I wish to acknowledge to their memory the help they gave my father in his early efforts.

One June 16, 1908, "thirty" was written for the editor of The Numismatist, and 20 1/2 years of an educational hobby were at an end for my father. It had always been his hope and wish to have published the magazine for 25 years and then turn it over to the association for its own.

The June issue was in press at the time as the mailing date was the 20th of the month, and there was a small amount of material ahead for the next number, although the July issue was mostly filled with special articles. Faran Zerbe and Howland Wood assumed charge of the helm for the rest of the year, but my story ends with my father. . .

Desire For One Coin Holds Collector's Fate

(Editor's Note: The last of a two part series).

What turned an elderly French bachelor, lover of dog and children, vice president of the Numismatic society, into a kind of a vampire killer of his own brother?

Why did Maxime Demailly stab his brother nine times, personally prepare him for burial to conceal the crime only to be discovered when a last-minute change in castles had to be effected?

On the second of October, the brothers attended a sale of coins on the Boulevard Montmartre. Both were eager bidders for a Roman coin of the time of Marcus Aurelius, and it was finally knocked down for a considerable sum to Adolphe.

Be it remarked here that although the brothers held all their other property even their clothing in common, they preserved their numismatic collections distinct, and displayed quite a gentle rivalry in regard to them.

The collections occupied two of the largest rooms in their house, where the coins were arranged in cases, Adolphe's guarded by locks of different construction from Maxime's. It was in one of the cases that the proud possessor of the newly acquired bit of verdigris-painted copper put his treasure on his return home.

For some days Maxime seems to have come and one with a constantly increasing desire of his brother's numismatic jewel. It was this desire, growing to a mania, which led to his crime. He might have stolen the coin, but his brother would, of course, discover its absence. What could he do to secure it?

One thought leads to another in natural course. If he could gain possession of the coin of Marcus Aurelius, why could he not make himself master of the entire collection of which the coveted copper was a part? He replied to that question with knife in hand by stabbing his brother during his sleep.

The pitiless execution of the crime, the cold-blooded arrangements for its concealment, were worthy of a professional assassin. Yet this man weeps bitter tears at the first mention of his victim's name; tells with delight many little incidents of the life his hand had cut short; includes the name of his dead brother in his daily prayers.

Only when mention of their collections is made does his brow darken. He then pours out a flood of bitter invective against his rival, whom, after years of living companionship, the accident of an auctioneer's hammer taught him to hate to the death.

Demailly was pronounced a dangerous monomaniac at his trial and sent to a mad-house.

Four Cities Join To Hold Ohio Fall Show

The Canton (Ohio) Coin Club will sponsor an annual fall show and auction for the Quad City Coin Clubs—numismatic organizations from Akron, Ashland, Canton and Wooster.

Show dates are Saturday and Sunday, October 15 and 16, at the Belden Hotel, Riviera Room, corner 6th St. and Market North. A 200-lot auction will be held the afternoon of both days.

The show, open to the public, will include exhibits of coins and currency, a good variety of auction lots and 25 dealers with bourse tables. There will be exhibit displays and no admission charge.

F. L. Watkins, 1207 19th St., N. W. Canton, 9, Ohio, is general chairman for this event. President of the Canton club is R. C. Thomas. Secretary is Howard Stucker. The auction will be conducted by C. T. Bolus, the cataloger.

A meeting feature on Sunday will be a discussion of numismatics by D. Wayne Johnson, editor and advertising manager of Coin World.

Ephraim Brasher, a New York goldsmith, made the gold coin struck there in 1787 that bears his name, Brasher doubloon. City fathers refused him permission to strike copper coins.

"CCC"—MAGIC COIN CLEANER

"CCC" is used by thousands of dealers and collectors to improve the appearance and enhance the value of coins which are FINE to UNCIRCULATED, particularly coins of copper or nickel. "CCC" also has other important though lesser known uses. Read the following interesting, unsolicited testimonial (one of dozens in our files):

"I am sure you will be interested in learning that I recently attempted the restoration of a batch of Flying Eagle cents which had been badly burned in a fire over 70 years ago. I used 'CCC' and the results were amazing!"

"Five came out EXTRA FINE, three VERY FINE, and all the rest except one are now good to fine. The lone exception proved to have lost its lettering in the fire but the bird retained nearly all of its feathers."

"Each coin proved to be an individual problem and some had to be soaked in 'CCC' overnight for many nights before the residue was loosened. A soft toothbrush was used to brush in baking soda between soakings."

"I firmly believe that burn't coins represent the stiffest challenge any coin cleaner can face. 'CCC' faced up to my problem — and won!"

"CCC" is easy to buy and easy to use. It is inexpensive (one bottle cleans hundreds of coins) and fast acting (cleans in seconds). Get the 4-oz. bottle from your dealer for $1.00 or send us a dollar for a 3-oz. bottle carefully packed and postpaid in the U.S. or Canada.

Dealers may send us $4.00 for a trial lot of six 4-oz. bottles postpaid in the U.S., or obtain larger supplies from jobbers.

CALIFORNIA SOUVENIR GOLD TOKENS

Shortly after the discovery of gold in California in 1849, small change was not too plentiful and this resulted in private coinage before the S. F. Mint was opened in 1854. Numerous goldsmiths, jewelers and gunsmiths started making dies for small denomination gold pieces, i.e., small octagonal 25c and round 50c pieces. These were also called "jewelers charms" and it is estimated by authorities that over 1000 types of these small coins were made. Later, tokens were made as jewelers charms but not of gold.

We now offer these souvenir tokens as follows:
Set of 5 different, 2 25c octagonal and 3 50c round, $4.00, or a set of 6, which includes the $1.00 size, for $5.75; 5 sets of 5 different tokens, $18.50; 5 sets of 6 different tokens, $27.50.

We have a black or white plastic holder which holds 5 of the pieces, excluding the $1.00 piece, at $2.00 each. Please designate black or white plastic.
We also have, which is available for the first time, gold filled rings for these tokens at $1.00 each, which makes the pieces suitable for charm bracelets, necklaces or any other kind of jewelry which these pieces can be used for. These rings are $1.00 each for either the 25c, 50c or $1.00 size tokens, or a set of 6 rings for $5.50. (Please note that the octagonal pieces will fit in the round 25c size ring.)

!! EXTRA SPECIAL !!
1960 SMALL DATE PROOF SETS, $27.50 per set.
1955 PROOF SETS, $11.25 each
10 sets $110.00
100 sets, $1075.00

Watch Words In Politics — Says Mrs. Luce

Clare Booth Luce has this advice for aspiring politicians in a "Top of the Morning" column in the St. Joseph, Mo., Gazette:

"Don't shoot cats, beware of lost commas, don't admit it if you're a numismatist and deny it if you're accused of dabbling in incunabula."

Mrs. Luce said her trouble began after a newspaper interview in which she discussed her hobbies. She described them as shooting (comma) cats.

The story appeared in the newspaper as "shooting cats." Instantly the be-kind-to-animal groups descended upon her in great wrath.

The politician who said he was a numismatist and dabbled in incunabula never had a chance, according to the column.

Although he aspired to be a leader and still retain his interest in coin collecting and the earliest examples of printing (incunabula) —he fell into political oblivion because no one could vote for an admitted numismatist and incunabulist.

Heavy tin coins shaped like crocodiles were used as money in Malay.

New Center Opened; Third In San Antonio

Another source for buying and selling of coins and stamps has been made available to Texans with the opening of the San Antonio Stamp and Coin Center, 228 East Commerce street, San Antonio.

The new center is owned and operated by Stanley K. Rupert, well known throughout the country; he has traveled full time for two years buying and selling coins and stamps from town to town.

The center features 1,100 square feet of floor space, 250 square feet of supplies display area and 85 square feet of coin and stamp display area.

This is the third stamp and coin store to be established in San Antonio.

'Coinival' Will Be In Oakland

A "Coinival" at the Oakland Boys Club Oct. 16th will be a special attraction for the East Bay Coin Club, Oakland, Calif. This will be the eighth annual coinival. There will be bourse tables for dealers and members, auctions, refreshments and other entertainment at the Bgys Club, 920 24th street.

It publishes the "Circulated Proof", which has the motto "Coins grow dear as they grow old", a quote from Alexander Pope.

The club was established April 16, 1948. It meets the second Friday of each month at 8:00 p.m. at Bjornson Hall, 2258 McArthur Blvd., Oakland. Officers are elected in December. The club has its own library.

Oklahoma Hobbyist Is Collector, Woodworker

W. T. Clark, 86, of Muskogee, Okla., who makes several major trips a year throughout the United States, a dedicated hobbyist, has been a coin collector for 20 years. He has a complete set of one-cent pieces with the exception of three, covering 157 years. He occasionally exhibits at the area fairs.

One of the masterpieces of his woodworking hobby is "The Castle of My Dreams," a picture constructed from 345 pieces of wood including 52 kinds from all over the world.

Philadelphia To Have Anniversary

The Philadelphia Coin Club's silver anniversary observance will be held October 13, 14 and 15 at the Bartram Hotel in Philadelphia.

There will be an auction on Thursday and Friday at 7 p.m., conducted by Donald D'Amato, Coins and Currency Inc.; bourse on Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

On Saturday evening there will be a banquet at 7 p.m.

Red hair from below the ear of the flying fox is accepted as currency in the Loyalty Islands.

'Mad Anthony' Wayne One Of First To Get Gold Medal

General Anthony Wayne, known by the sobriquet of "Mad Anthony" during the Revolutionary War, was a master strategist—and his country recognized this factor with a handsome gold medal, one of the earliest bestowed on a military hero of the new nation.

The medal was awarded for his gallant deed on the night of July 15, 1779, when he surprised and took Stony Point on the Hudson River.

At 2 a.m. the morning of July 16, 1779, the weary but exhilarated Wayne penned this letter to General Washington:

The fort and garrison with Colonel Johnson are ours. Our officers and men behaved like men who are determined to be free.

Brigadier-General Anthony Wayne won this gold medal for his brave, prudent and soldierly conduct in the spirited and well-conducted attack of Stony Point on the Hudson River July 15, 1779, in a surprise attack. Later he gained important victories over the Miami tribe of Indians in Ohio and the surrounding area. Congress, in the official citation accompanying the medal, also commended General Wayne's troops for their coolness, discipline and firm intrepidity exhibited on the occasion.

Yours, most sincerely,
Anthony Wayne.

General Washington, in his letter to the "president of the congress" said General Wayne's conduct throughout "the whole of this arduous enterprise merits the warmest approbation of Congress. He improved upon the plan recommended by me, and executed it in a manner that does signal honour to his judgment and to his bravery."

"In a critical moment of the assault he received a flesh wound in the head with a musket ball, but continued leading on his men with unshaken firmness."

The legend on the medal is:

Brigadier - General Anthony Wayne

Antonio Wayne Duci Exercitus Comitia Americana (The American congress to General Anthony Wayne). America, personified as an Indian queen, standing, and having at her feet a bow, an alligator and the American shield, presents to General Wayne a laurel and a mural crown. Gatteaux.

Stony-Point (sic) Expugnatum (Stony Point carried by storm.) The American troops carrying Stony Point by assault. Six ships on the Hudson River. Exergue: V JUL MDCCCLXXIX (15 Juli 1779; July 15, 1779) on the platform. Gatteaux.

Anthony Wayne was born at Waynesborough, Chester county, Pa., January 1, 1745. He was educated in Philadelphia. In 1774 he was elected a member of the Pennsylvania convention, and in 1775 was appointed a colonel of a regiment under General Thomas in Canada, and took part in the engagements at Three Rivers and at Ticonderoga.

In 1775 he was promoted to the rank of brigadier-general under Washington, and fought at the Brandywine, Germantown and Monmouth.

After Stony Point he served in the south, occupied Savannah July 11, 1782, and Charleston, S. C., December 14, 1782. He retired to his estate at the close of the war.

On April 3, 1792, he was appointed major-general and commander in chief in the war against the western Indians, and in 1794 gained an important victory over the Miami tribe of Indians.

He died at Presque Isle, now Erie, Pa., December 14, 1796. In 1809 his son, Colonel Wayne, removed his remains to the cemetery of Radnor church near Waynesborough where the Pennsylvania State Society of the Cincinnati caused a handsome monument to be erected in his memory.

The Anthony Wayne Trail highway markers are a familiar sight to mid-west motorists.

These English exchequer tallies from the 1200's were used during the reign of King Edward I. The script is not old English, but a mixture of clerical Latin and Norman French. The many abbreviations used in the inscriptions make them difficult to decipher.

Splintery Money Was Notched, Split, Stripped

The exchequer tallies of medieval England were not so primitive or unwieldy as modern-day collectors might suppose!

The tallies, made of hazel and willow woods, were adaptable, light in weight, small in size and easy to understand. They were practically impossible to counterfeit, too.

The amount of money each represented was indicated by notches. On the lower edge toward the holder of the tally, the incisions denoted the larger denominations with the pence at the right hand end.

The notches were cut according to definite rules. A thousand pounds was marked by a cut as thick as the palm of a hand, a hundred by the breadth of the thumb, and a score by the breadth of the little finger.

A pound was recorded by a cut the breadth of a grain of ripe barley, a shilling still less and a penny by a single incision, nothing cut out of the wood.

The intended stick was then split through the incisions almost to the bottom, and a portion retained by each of the parties of the transaction.

The exchequer kept the stock or part of the tally with the stump handle attached, and the counterfoil, the flat piece stripped off the tally, was given to the person paying in the money.

The tally reached its highest point of development as a form of reckoning in England — it was used as late as the 19th century. Originally intended as a tally it eventually developed into a token, a form of money to be handed from person to person.

In the 12th and 13th centuries it was the custom to give a notched stick to those who paid money into the exchequer. The stick or exchequer tally could be used in the same manner as any negotiable instrument of the present time.

Aboriginal tribes still use this system today — so do bakers in France and Chinese storekeepers. They use notched sticks to keep records.

Use of tallies in England was abolished during the latter part of the reign of George III. William IV ordered the old tallies destroyed because of the space they took in the parliament buildings.

It was decided to burn the sticks in the heating stoves of the House of Parliament. The dried sticks burned so readily the stoves were over-heated and caused a fire that demolished the structure!

Authority for this discussion is Stuart Mosher who wrote on this topic in The Coin Collector's Journal.

Navy Men Are Superstitious; Build In Coins

Here's a numismatic superstition to add to the many others dealing with ships and the sea and sailors...

Reader Lloyd M. Kohler, Bellflower, Calif., cites a story carried by the "Star and Bull" newspaper of the U.S.S. Orion during World War II days.

It pointed out that many naval customs and superstitions have been handed down from ancient civilizations of the world including the placing of coins at the foot of the mast.

This probably is a survival of the old Roman custom of putting coins in the mouths of the dead to pay their way across the River Styx.

An old Spanish wreck found in the Orkneys had a coin dated 1618 under the mast.

In 1943 the U.S.S. New Orleans was commissioned and the officers of this ship placed 10 cents under the foremast, two dimes and three nickels and 28 cents at the heel of her mainmast during construction.

The year 1873 stands out among coin collectors for the large number of coins struck by the U.S. Mint—six denominations of gold pieces, seven of silver, two copper nickel and two bronze coins—17 pieces in all.

Reader Is Defensive In Foreign Sale

"How can a serious foreign coin collector buy foreign coins from American coin dealers when they usually don't know nothing about the coins which they are selling?"

This quote is from a letter to Coin World from Edgar Berzins, 487 Hudson Street, New York, 14, in response to a recent Coin World editorial to "buy American."

"No use to give them different catalog numbers when they have not such special catalogs," said Reader Berzins. "Usually they have only Yeoman catalog, after which a serious collector cannot build his collection—only beginners."

Berzins said English, Austrian and Switzerland dealers are much better equipped with knowledge about their coins. "They send you your coins and bill you—they trust you (with) the coins that you wish, but American dealers first will have money, then they reply that they are sold out, or send you coins below advertised conditions," the New Yorker complained.

He said 16th and 17th century coins are almost impossible to buy from American dealers.

"Sure, last 10-year issues and current coins can and must everybody buy from American dealers, not from dealers or Mints abroad," wrote Berzins.

"Foreign coin dealers must obtain more knowledge about their coins, then it will be o. k.," he concluded.

FAIR WEATHER FRIENDS?

Anyone can be friendly when you're giving him business. But voice a complaint — and that's another matter! Politeness dissolves — you get a nasty letter — sometimes. At Marles & Co. we like to be friends with our clients even in "stormy weather". Is something wrong? Tell us! We'll make it RIGHT without a fight.

From amongst the many letters received by us recently: "I would like to comment on the tremendous service that was presented to me on my last order. In dealing with other coin dealers in Canada and U.S. I have never been treated and presented with such organizational promptness and neatness. It feels very good doing business with a firm such as yours". R. Hagler, Lake City, Colo.

APPRAISING AND SELLING YOUR COINS

The new green book by Robert Friedberg is a complete illustrated catalogue of U.S. coins and bills and their cash premium values from 1652 to the present. It also contains the complete coinage of Canada and Newfoundland from 1858 to the present.

Also included in the book are rolls of uncirculated coins from 1934 to date; U.S. paper money from 1861 to date; Colonial and early American coins; Confederate States paper money; pioneer gold coins. Coinage figures are given alongside each coin and all items show average prices paid by dealers. 176 pages, 5"x7½" First edition.

GOLD COINS OF THE WORLD

Complete from 600 A.D. to 1958. An illustrated standard catalogue with valuations by Robert Friedberg.

The only book of its kind ever published, it is a monumental advance in numismatic knowledge. Every gold coin in the world is catalogued in one volume with its numismatic valuation. Features: more than 2700 illustrations, valuable reference tables, including the weight, fineness and original exchange value of the principal gold coins of the world. It belongs in the library of anyone interested in coins and is an important source book for banks, libraries, research staffs and institutions of learning. 384 pages, 8½"x11", cloth bound. First Edition.

PAPER MONEY OF THE UNITED STATES

For the first time in history, Robert Friedberg has illustrated all types of U.S. Paper Money from 1861 to the present, from three cents to $10,000 and added collectors valuations.

A new, remarkable section, "National Bank Notes by States" illustrates and evaluates by state every National Bank Note, more than 2,200 valuations in all! Territorial Notes are also catalogued, and finally there is a geographical and numerical list of all 14,348 National Banks. More than 300 pages, 8½"x11" cloth bound. The only reference work of its kind in the world. A definitive work. Third Edition, 1959.

$12.50

International Coin Catalogue And Price List, 1960 Edition

The one and only book of its kind; an inexpensive single volume catalogue that is all-embracing in its scope. 176 pages with valuable information and illustrations. The following series of coins are covered and approximate retail prices are given for all coins.

1. United States Coins. All types U.S. coins from half cents through silver dollars are illustrated for information and to show the differences in the many designs.
2. The Coins of Canada. A complete listing of all the coins of Canada, Newfoundland and the rest of British North America. Priced by condition.
3. Coins of Ancient Greece and Ancient Rome.
4. Silver Dollars of the World. One of the most extensive and thorough listings ever to be made in one volume; a valuable and permanent reference.

$1.50

America's First Family Of Coin Albums THE LIBRARY OF COINS

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by THE LIBRARY OF COINS. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring 8¼" x 6¼", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

The Library of Coins is the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years. They were several years in development and were designed by numismatists to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for a descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.

Our albums, books and medals are available at your local coin dealer, stamp dealer, book store, hobby shop or at department store counters.

Dealers are invited to send for our Wholesale Price List, using their business stationery and furnishing suitable credit references as to their commercial status.
